A HISTORY OF FATHER'S DAY

“Though Father’s Day wasn’t made a national holiday until 1972, the efforts of one woman in Washington sparked a movement to celebrate dads long before then.

“The first known Father’s Day service occurred in Fairmont, West Virginia, on July 5, 1908, thanks to the efforts of Grace Golden Clayton. The service was to honor all fathers, especially those hundreds who were killed during a devastating mine explosion in Monongah (just a few miles from Fairmont) the previous year. However, the observance did not become an annual event, and it was not promoted—very few outside the local area knew about it.

“In 1909, Sonora Smart Dodd of Spokane, Washington, also was inspired to create a holiday honoring fathers. William Jackson Smart, her father, was a farmer and Civil War veteran who raised Sonora and her five young brothers by himself after his wife, Ellen, died giving birth to their youngest child in 1898. While attending a Mother’s Day church service in 1909, Sonora, then 27, came up with the idea.

“Within a few months, Sonora had convinced the Spokane Ministerial Association and the YMCA to set aside a Sunday in June to celebrate fathers. She proposed June 5, her father’s birthday, but the ministers chose the third Sunday in June so that they would have more time after Mother’s Day (the second Sunday in May) to prepare their sermons. So it was that on June 19, 1910, Sonora delivered presents to handicapped fathers, boys from the YMCA decorated their lapels with fresh-cut roses (red for living fathers, white for the deceased), and the city’s ministers devoted their homilies to fatherhood.

“The widely publicized events in Spokane struck a chord that reached all the way to Washington, D.C., and Sonora’s celebration started on its path to becoming a national holiday.

-  In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson and his family personally observed the day.
-  Eight years later, President Calvin Coolidge signed a resolution in favor of Father’s Day ‘to establish more intimate relations between fathers and their children and to impress upon fathers the full measure of their obligations.’
-  In 1966, President Lyndon Johnson signed an executive order that the holiday be celebrated on the third Sunday in June.
-  Under President Richard Nixon, in 1972, Congress passed an act officially making Father’s Day a national holiday.

(Six years later, Sonora died at age 96.)”

Remembering Dad

My dad's garden of love flourished with vegetables and fruit trees. He toiled till his hands were red and he had sweat on his brow. He weeded them patiently to guard and protect the plants.

Planting fruit trees and gardening were my dad's hobbies. I remember how happy he was when the cherry trees produced fruits. He eagerly gathered and shared the fruits with the family and friends.

He collected seeds of various kinds and planted them in individual pots. When the seedlings grew, he gave them to his friends for them to propagate and sow.

My dad was generous. Dad had a big heart. He shared the produce of his garden with others. The garden was his expression of love and concern for the environment.

Dad, we love you and thank you for all your sacrifices for your family. You are not with us now, but your love lives in the hearts of your children. Dad, till we meet again in God's garden in heaven, we will cherish your love forever as long as we live.

"Children obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right." Ephesians 6:1

PENTECOST SUNDAY

June 5 is Pentecost this year. Pentecost in Christianity comes 50 days after Easter, that time period being called the season of Eastertide. When the Holy Spirit entered each of the gathered apostles on Pentecost, that time marks the birthday of the church. In the past, we have encouraged all to wear red as a sign of the flames of the Spirit on the apostles —so wear red all day on June 5, even if still sheltered in place. We remember the birth of the Christian Church and the way that the Holy Spirit empowered the disciples to proclaim Jesus as Messiah! It all started with the disciples gathered in prayer. It makes one wonder just what might happen when we worship, pray, and share Communion together.

Come, Spirit, Come!

SESSION REPORT

Regular Session Meeting; May 16, 2022

Session business was short, with decisions made on familiar topics.

- ✚ The Pentecost Special Offering will be received on Sunday, June 5, 2022. This is one of four denominational special offerings received during the year. 40% of the Pentecost special offering received is retained by the local congregation (that's us) to be dedicated to the support of local ministries for children, youth, and young adults. Session approved a recommendation from the Stewardship & Finance Team to contribute our 2022 local portion to support the programs offered by the Jones Community Center in Chicago Heights. The remaining 60% portion will be sent to Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) for Young Adult Volunteers (25%) [Pastor Matt was a participant in this program in his youth], Ministries with Youth (25%), and children at-risk for education and safe havens (10%).
- ✚ The Member Care Team recommended the reinstatement of Heavenly Perks in some format in Westminster Hall following the worship services. Initially, drinks will be in small water bottles and any snacks will be prepackaged. The kitchen will not be open for food preparation. Session voted to approve the return of Heavenly Perks on Sunday, May 22, 2022.
- ✚ Since returning to worship in the sanctuary in July 2021, the weekly worship bulletins have been supplemented with large-print copies of the hymns. Session decided to discontinue this use of copy paper and toner and return to the use of the pew hymnals. The risk of virus contamination on books not touched in seven-day intervals is negligible.

On Saturday, April 30, 2022, Rev. Lang officiated the memorial service (long delayed from the terrible weather in January 2022) for Active Member Violet Patricia (Pat) Steiner in the sanctuary.

Rev. Lang reported he is still in the process of meeting members and building relationships. Part of that process is exploring the south suburban area that surrounds the church. He plans to have regular in-office hours on Wednesdays from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. He schedules different in-office hours for Calvary United Protestant Church in Park Forest.

Notification was received of the marriage of Kaci Ruklic, daughter of Active Members Jay and Debra Ruklic, and Matt Muta in Valparaiso, IN, on Saturday, May 14, 2022.

The Stewardship & Finance Team reported the intention of Church Treasurer Linda Daanen, who has been with us for five years, to resign and relocate to the state of Washington. She is building an addition to the home presently occupied by her son and daughter-in-law. Any person interested in applying for the position of Church Treasurer should contact Kathie Darman (chair of Personnel & Administration) or Sylvia Tufts (chair of Stewardship & Finance).

The Member Care Team is proposing the creation of a new Visitor Packet. These packets will be handed to visitors as part of their welcome to the church and worship. A greeting from Rev. Lang will be included.

Respectfully submitted,
Edward C. Wahl, Clerk of Session

FROM THE PASTOR - VANITATUM

One of my favorite films is No Country for Old Men. It's the rare bird of a film that is better than the book. Toward the end of the film, the sheriff, Ed Tom Bell, goes to visit Ellis, a relative, a former sheriff wheelchair bound by a bullet. Ed Tom tells Ellis he's quitting because, among other reasons, he doesn't understand the world in which he's living. Nothing makes sense, every thing seems bad, and the world is getting (always getting) worse.

The older man in the wheelchair is not sympathetic. What you got ain't new. This country's hard on people, he says. You can't stop what's comin'. It ain't all waitin' on you. That's vanity.

The entire film is worth watching simply for the pure perfection of the scene. The acting, the pacing, the setting, the lighting, the other aspects of cinema that I don't know to look for but am certain are perfect in this perfect scene.

(You can watch it here:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xdOPJKocMWg>

Vanity is the root of how much suffering? All of the suffering? When I blew out my knee, the physical pain was caused by the disintegration of my ACL. Then Vanity arrived, drunk and stumbling, loud and knocking over lamps, pushing people in the back and demanding to know what the hell they thought they were looking at. Vanity took the physical pain and turned it into something worse.

It ain't all waitin' on you. Or me. I'll even take it one further: Nothing at all is waiting on you or me. Everything is going at exactly its own pace and it never stops living and growing and changing. Such is the nature of the sovereignty of God.

Change isn't easy. You have my permission to not like it. I don't always like it. Just between you and me (and, well, God), I don't always like God and how God does things, and I chafe when people tell me to have gratitude. I reserve the right to have gratitude for some things and disappointment for others. God, I believe, doesn't need us to be any one way. What I think (I pray) God wants most is for us to keep showing up regardless of how we feel, to say again and again, *Okay, I'll be part of this world.

*Also from the film, though not from the scene in question.

Peace, Matt Lang

CHICAGO HEIGHTS MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Chicago Heights First Presbyterian Men's Fellowship and our men will gather for lunch on Friday, June 17, at 12:30 p.m. at Paulie's Pub, 2736 Chicago Road, South Chicago Heights. All are welcome.

TRUSTEE REPORT

At the May meeting of the Trustees, Buildings/Grounds Committee reported that Johnnie Dorsey sprayed a herbicide on weeds and that Paul Gerrish cleaned behind the shed, reset splash bars, and cleaned tubes at the bottom of downspouts. The two water leaks still have not been stopped, which means a clean up after each rain. One is a roof leak in the balcony, and the other is a gutter leak that sends water through a window into Westminster Hall. There are bees living in the front columns.

From Grounds Beautification, Paul Gerrish pulled out a tree stump at the corner of the cloister and parlor. Yard waste is becoming expensive, but paper bags and a sticker are still cheaper than renting a bin. The piano still needs three wires replaced. The organ still needs more repairs—3 proposals for these have arrived that are extremely expensive. The Trustees are considering one at $14,000. The Trustees also have to consider what kind of phone to put into the elevator as the analog is now outdated, another expensive change. Janet Wahl

Thank you to all who are now choosing to submit your regular offerings through the on-line giving option (as found on the church website).

 WORSHIP MINISTRY TEAM

We still have a significant presence on our website for our live-stream worship each Sunday. But we need help producing it. Phil Dillman does most of the camera work, but we need trained substitutes for him! If Phil is not there, no live-stream service would go out to the internet. Now we also need someone to actually connect us to the internet and create a link for our web page.

Got 15 minutes on Sundays? That's what it would take each Sunday morning to make our live-streamed service available to those at home who are waiting to worship with us digitally. We're looking for someone who could commit to do this process at 11 a.m. (central time) each week. The process is as follows: open the Face Book connection, highlight the link, and post it to the church's website so that people can get the link from the website instead of going directly to Face Book, which some people don't want to do. According to Kathie Hazlett, who does this each week right now, it would take less than 15 minutes, and it could be done from anywhere you happen to be. If you are in the sanctuary worshipping with us in person, if you're in your car, if you're out of town—no matter where you are! That's one of the beauties, of course, of the internet: it doesn't care where you are!

What matters is that someone can commit to do this each week; though simple, it's required in order for our service to be accessible through our website, where people click to join worship. The process of establishing this link is easy, and Kathie is willing to teach anyone how to do it. We're looking for someone to make this weekly commitment.

Is that someone you? Contact Laurie Ulrich (708-957-8048) or Nancy Beaudoin (708-334-5023) if this is a commitment you'd be willing to make. It's a vital part of our on-line presence and outreach to the wider Christian community. Laurie Ulrich

You are invited to come on down after in-person worship from noon to 1 p.m. Enter Westminster Hall from the west end by the elevator and depart using the stairway by the office (east end). Please follow safe distancing guidelines. Tables and chairs are set up. Help yourself to a bottle of water and pre-packaged snacks. Be cognizant of what you are touching. Keep your hands off your face and do not lick your fingers. We hope you enjoy and look forward to safely seeing and chatting with everyone. No clean-up: Please leave everything as it is. The tables and chairs can stay as they are. Someone will remove the water and snacks at 1:30 p.m.

News from the Northwest

Amazing!! FPC / CUP and HPC all have pastors—arriving at almost the same time! It is reassuring to have a shepherd, is it not?

Heritage Presbyterian Church (PCUSA) is a small church—smaller than Homewood—with a small building built about 35 years ago: one level; no pews, loft, nor balcony. Across the street is Glenbard North High School, which has an agreement with Heritage that allows student parking in exchange for parking lot maintenance. A couple of years ago, the Missional Action Committee decided to give “goodie bags” to our student parkers at the close of school the Friday before finals week as a way of saying we care about you. A month ago, two MAC members spent an hour talking with a Glenbard teacher/coach about needs and connections between school and church, and the conversation turned to mental health, the toll that ongoing pandemic stresses are taking on young people. That resulted in a change in the goodie bag.

A team of church members met to fill zip lock bags—not with candy but each with a note pad, pen, a fidget (“stress popper”) key chain, and a page of “7 Tips for Coping with the Stress of Finals” for preparing mind and body for the coming week of final exams. Also available to the students was a prayer table. (Makes you think of Monday Night Dinners, doesn’t it?) Another team was present to distribute about a hundred of those bags when school ended Friday before finals week.

Pastor Sara Snowden began her work with the Heritage flock in May, so she was part of the high school outreach. Sara and husband Chip found a house in Carol Stream, and we are getting to know one another, glad for their presence. She will have lunch soon with the “Windsor Women” (my nickname for the four Heritage members who live at Windsor Park) in our Grill, which is open 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Hoping to write again... Love, Karen Maurer
